§ 169-7 Definitions

ELIGIBLE PERSON

Any resident who on or before June 30 of the year during which that person makes an application and has either attained the age of 65 or become totally disabled. No person shall be eligible to claim both an elderly and a totally disabled exemption.

§ 169-10 Limitation on exemptions.

- A. In the event that any eligible property shall be owned by two or more eligible persons, only one such person may file an application for exemption pursuant to § 169-8 hereof. The Assessor shall be bound by any agreement amongst the owners as to the person who shall have the right to file; provided, however, that in the absence of any such agreement, the Assessor shall consider as properly filed that application which, if granted, shall result in the greatest exemption.
- B. In the event that any eligible person has attained the age of 65 and is totally disabled pursuant to § 169-7, that person may only file one application for exemption, and the Assessor shall consider as properly filed that application which, if granted, shall result in the greatest exemption.
